The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XXIIᵈ Year.] THURSDAY, October 9, 1766. [Nº. 1100.]

LONDON, July 17.

LETTERS from Algiers, dated May 20, say, that the new Dey has not only confirmed and signed the Treaty concluded by Commodore Sels, between the States General of the United Provinces and this Regency, but likewiſe the ſeparate Article ſtipulated by his Predeceſſor and the Captains de Beer and Braak. The 8th of April ſix of the 40 Turkiſh Soldiers who had conſpired againſt the Dey, were ſtrangled, the Reſt having made their Eſcape by Means of a little Bark, which they had built clandeſtinely, about a Quarter of a League off from this City.

July 18. We hear before long we ſhall have Advice of ſome diſagreeable Alliances being formed in the North.

July 19. It is confidently reported, that freſh Diſturbances are likely to happen in Germany.

There never was a greater Likelihood of the old Syſtem of Policy taking Place again, than at preſent; for if the Report be true, which ſeems highly probable, that a Treaty is ſecretly negociating between France, and a certain Northern Prince, the Empreſs Queen will deſert the former, and ſeek the Alliance of her old and natural Ally Great-Britain, whom ſhe ſo ſhamefully, and to her Coſt, deſerted in the late War; but France, no Doubt, will think the Loſs amply made up, by making an Ally of a Prince, whoſe unparallelled Abilities, both in the Field and Cabinet, hath already baffled the united Efforts made to cruſh him, by two mighty Empires, and four moſt powerful Nations, and by getting the greateſt General in Europe to head her Armies.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Paris, to his Friend in London.

"By the prudent Regulations and Management of an able Miniſtry, our Finances are already in as flouriſhing a Condition as they were in before the Beginning of the late War; and our Army and Navy in a much better Condition to commence a new War."

July 22. In all the late Changes of the Miniſtry, it is looked upon as ſurprizing, that nothing has even ſo much as been attempted to redreſs the Grievances, or eſtabliſh the Credit of the Britiſh Commerce in Portugal, which now languiſhes under all the Oppreſſions which a haughty and favourite Prime Miniſter, from Self-intereſted Motives of an all-graſping Monopoly, has laid it under.

A Letter from Haleſworth, dated July 17, informs us, that on Monday the 14th Inſt. they had a violent Tempeſt there in the Afternoon, attended with a prodigious Quantity of Rain. Many People in the Neighbourhood had all their Hay carried away by the Floods; at Bramfield, 3 Miles from thence, it is incredible to think of, but true, that the Water roſe full 9 Feet perpendicular. In the ſame Village the Lightning took the Bark off an Oak as clean as if it had been taken off with Hand, and left it ſtanding and tottering ſcarce able to bear its own Weight; it was ſplit into Myriads of Pieces.

It is now ſaid, there will be no Abatement in our full Demands on the Court of Madrid, for their immediate Diſcharge of the Manilla Ranſom.

July 23. It is reported that Britiſh Seamen in Foreign Service are ſoon to be ordered home, even thoſe in the Portugueſe Service.

July 26. It is agreed between our Court and the Chapter of Oſnabrug, that during the Minority of the Prince-Biſhop, his Vote in the Diet of the Empire ſhall be void.

The Hon. Eaſt-India Company have received freſh Advices over Land from Lord Clive, dated in December laſt. Amongſt other Things it is ſaid, his Lordſhip has remitted to China 300,000 l. to pay for the Cargoes of the Ships that may arrive there; and alſo paid off about the ſame Sum, for which the Company paid Intereſt, at the Rate of 8 per Cent.

It is ſaid the Prince Stadtholder is expected in Town by the Middle of next Month, and we hear great Preparations are making to receive him with a Splendor ſuitable to his Dignity.

July 29. It is ſaid the Biſhop of Oſnabrug will ſoon have the Honours of his Grand Uncle, as Duke of Cumberland, conferred on him, which will be continued to the ſecond Son of the Royal Line.

It is ſaid, that the Reaſon of the Poſt of Lord Privy Seal being pitched upon for Mr. Pitt, in Preference to that of Secretary of State, was, that the former does not make him reſponſible for Meaſures which he may not be allowed to guide, this high and lucrative Office being almoſt a Sinecure; however, his holding any Poſt in the Adminiſtration, will be ſufficient to gain it Reſpect both at home and abroad, and to give it Stability and Importance.

July 31. His Majeſty has appointed Lord William Campbell Governor of Nova-Scotia.

His Majeſty has alſo appointed John Wentworth, Eſq; Governor of New-Hampſhire.

Beſides the Changes already mentioned to have taken Place, the following, among others leſs probable, it is ſaid, will ſoon be declared, viz.

George Cooke, Eſq; Member for Middleſex, Col. Barre, and the Right Hon. James Oſwald, to be Vice Treaſurers of Ireland.

Mr. Yorke has reſigned, and will accept of nothing.

Mr. De Grey is appointed Attorney General; and Mr. Wills, Solicitor General.

Judge Wilmot, to be Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas.

Mr. Huſſey, a Judge in the King's Bench, in the Room of Judge Wilmot.

The Hon. Mr. Stuart Mackenzie (Brother to Lord Bute) Privy Seal for Scotland.

Mr. James Grenville, Pay-maſter.

The Hon. Hans Stanley is to go Embaſſador to Peterſburgh: The Earl of Rochfort to Paris.

We are informed the Earl of Egmont is to continue Firſt Lord of the Admiralty.

Auguſt 2. Yeſterday the Lord Chancellor was at Court, and received the Compliments of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, on his Promotion.

The Earl of Dartmouth, who was firſt Lord of Trade, and intended to have been Secretary of State for the Colonies, has reſigned.

Yeſterday the Earl of Shelburne had a numerous Levee at his Houſe in Hill-ſtreet, for the firſt Time ſince his being appointed Secretary of State.

Auguſt 5. Some Letters by the laſt Liſbon Mail adviſe, that the Malabars had broke the Truce with the Viceroy of Goa.

They write from Algiers, that they are buſy in fixing up a Boom and Chain for the Defence of the Harbour, being in Fear of a Bombardment.

Auguſt 7. Laſt Saturday died, at her Lodgings near the Broadway in Deptford, aged 69 Years, Mrs. Mary Lubornе, Relict of Capt. Lubornе, formerly in the Eaſt-India Service, who for upwards of forty Years has lived in Greenwich and Deptford in the moſt penurious Manner: She even denied herſelf every Neceſſary of Life, wearing Cloaths that would ſcarcely hide her Nakedneſs, and thoſe covered with Vermin; has not been known to have had any Fire, or even lighted Candle, in her Apartment for 14 Years paſt; nor either to wear a Shift or lie in a Sheet; ſhe frequently went a Begging on the High Road, when ſhe went on Buſineſs to London. On Tueſday laſt, it is ſuppoſed, ſhe was taken ill, by her not being ſeen on Wedneſday and Thurſday till the Afternoon, when ſhe was found in Bed Speechleſs, and in a miſerable Condition; but, by immediate Application of ſome nouriſhing Medicine, her Life was prolonged till Saturday Morning. Notwithſtanding her wretched Way of Life, on opening her Drawers, Cheſts, &c. by her Relations, there were found, as is ſtrongly reported, Securities in the Bank, South-Sea, Eaſt-India, and other Stocks, to the Amount of 30,000 l. and upwards, beſides Jewels and other precious Stones, Plate, China, Cloaths of every Kind of the richeſt Sort, great Quantities of the fineſt Silks, Linen, Velvets, &c. unmade up, to a very great Value, beſides a large Sum of Money. Her common Wearing Apparel were buried the ſame Evening in a Dunghill; and her Bedding, &c. thrown into the Street Yeſterday, being ſo deſtroyed by Vermin, as to be unfit for any Perſon's Uſe.

Notwithſtanding People may think they have ſufficient Cauſe to ſuſpect the Patriotiſm of a certain GREAT MAN, yet, for many ſtrong Reaſons, improper to be divulged at preſent, we are firmly perſuaded, his Conduct will convince them, at the Meeting of Parliament, that the P——ge hath not in the leaſt diminiſhed the Zeal or Integrity of the Patriot.

We hear a Spaniſh War is talked of, and that a certain Nobleman has adviſed (as he did upon a former Occaſion) to ſend a Fleet to Cadiz to demand a categorical Anſwer, with reſpect to ſome Part of the Behaviour of Spain ſince the late Peace; about which a Memorial is now preparing, to which no evaſive Anſwer will be received.

It is expected that a categorical Anſwer will be demanded from the States General of the United Provinces, relative to an Affair of the utmoſt Conſequence to this Kingdom.

Yeſterday there was a great Council at St. James's, at which the Lord Preſident, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Privy Seal, the two Secretaries of State, and ſeveral other Lords of the Privy Council, aſſiſted; which did not break up till paſt Four o'Clock.

The ſame Day William De Grey, Eſq; was ſworn in before the Lord Chancellor, his Majeſty's Attorney General. As was alſo —— Wills, Eſq; his Majeſty's Solicitor General, in Room of Mr. De Grey.

The Alarms propagated ſome Days paſt, as if this Nation was on the Eve of an approaching Rupture with Spain, were, as we are informed, without the leaſt Foundation.

Intimation having been given by a Lady, that a late Commoner was inclined to pay a Viſit at Stowe; Anſwer was made, that he might come if he pleaſed, provided he brought the E. of B. along with him.

Aug. 9. On Wedneſday laſt Six principal Merchants, viz. Meſſrs. Trecothick, Long, Hanbury, Morſe, Stewart, and Vaughan, deputed from the Merchants of London, Trading to the Weſt-Indies, and to North-America, waited on the Marquis of Rockingham with an Addreſs, in which they remark, that, his Lordſhip being no longer in a public Station, they are exempt from even the Suſpicion of Flattery;—and expreſſing their Senſe of the eſſential Benefits received, during a Petiod, ſhort indeed, but truly remarkable for the nobleſt Exertions in Favour of the Civil and Commercial Intereſts of theſe Kingdoms, happily diſpelling the threatning Clouds, and opening a Syſtem of Commerce, liberal and uſeful beyond all former Example.

"The late Adminiſtration came into Employment under the Mediation of the Duke of Cumberland, on the 10th Day of July, 1765, having laſted juſt One Year and Twenty Days.

"In that Space of Time,

"The Diſtractions of the Britiſh Empire were compoſed, by the Repeal of the American Stamp-Act.

"But the Conſtitutional Superiority of Great-Britain, was preſerved by the Act for ſecuring the Dependence of the Colonies.

"Private Houſes were relieved from the Juriſdiction of the Exciſe, by the Repeal of the Cyder Tax.

"The perſonal Liberty of the Subject was confirmed, by the Reſolution for condemning the Seizure of Papers.

"The Trade of America was ſet free from injudicious and ruinous Impoſitions—Its Revenue was improved and ſettled upon a rational Foundation—Its Commerce extended with foreign Countries; while all the Advantages were ſecured to Great-Britain, by the Act for the repealing certain Duties, and encouraging, regulating, and ſecuring the Trade of this Kingdom, and the Britiſh Dominions in America.

"Materials were provided and inſured to our Manufactures—The Sale of theſe Manufactures were increaſed—The African Trade preſerved and extended—The Principles of the Act of Navigation purſued, and the Plan improved—And the Trade for Bullion rendered free &c.

" cure, and permanent, by the Act for opening
" certain Ports in Dominica and Jamaica.

" While that Adminiſtration provided for the " Liberty and Commerce of their Country, as
" the true Baſis of its Power, they conſulted its
" Intereſts, they aſſerted its Honour abroad with
" Temper and Firmneſs; by making an advan-
" tageous Treaty of Commerce with Ruſſia; by
" obtaining a Liquidation of the Canada Bills,
" to the Satisfaction of the Proprietors; by re-
" viving and raiſing from its Aſhes the Nego-
" ciation for the Manilla Ranſom, which had
" been extinguiſhed and abandoned by their Pre-
" deceſſors.

" They treated their Sovereign with Decency;
" with Reverence. They diſcountenanced, and,
" it is hoped, for ever aboliſhed the dangerous and
" unconſtitutional Practice of removing Military
" Officers for their Votes in Parliament. They
" firmly adhered to thoſe Friends of Liberty,
" who had run all Hazards in its Cauſe, and pro-
" vided for them in Preference to every other
" Claim.

" With the Earl of B--- they had no perſonal
" Connection; no Correſpondence of Councils.
" They neither courted him, nor perſecuted him.
" They practiſed no Corruption; nor were they " ever ſuſpected of it. They ſold no Offices. They
" obtained no Reverſions or Penſions, either com-
" ing in or going out, for themſelves, their Fa" milies, or their Dependants."

The Repreſentatives of a Britiſh-born Subject, a Gentleman who reſided at Surinam when given up to the Dutch in 1667, and then poſſeſſed of a great Property in that Colony, but which the Governor, in 1687, arbitrarily prohibited, and prevented him from diſpoſing of or bringing off, contrary to the Treaties between the two Nations, and afterwards confiſcating them, has, we hear, in Conſequence of the Opinion of the preſent Lord Chancellor, when Attorney General, in 1761, applied to the King and Council for Redreſs, and that in Conſequence of ſpirited Repreſentations made by Order of his Majeſty to the States General, theſe Repreſentatives have great Hopes of recovering the Sum of 200,000 l. and upwards, ſo unjuſtly detained by our good Allies, the Dutch, from a Britiſh Subject.

The Difference in the Price of Stocks has, within a few Days, been ſo extraordinary, as to give many ſenſible People an Apprehenſion of another South Sea Bubble, ſince there is no probable Way of accounting for ſo ſtrange a Fluctuation.

Auguſt 5. Yeſterday the Earl of Chatham had the Honour of a Conference with His Majeſty at the Queen's Palace before he came to Court.

Very healing Meaſures are ſaid to be on the Carpet, with Regard to adjuſting certain late Differences with a Northern Potentate.

We hear that Lord George Sackville has reſigned his Place of Vice Treaſurer of Ireland.

We alſo hear that Lord Braidalbane has reſigned his Office of Keeper of the Privy Seal of Scotland.

It is ſaid, the D---- are greatly alarmed, on Account of their having moſt notoriouſly broke the Treaties of Peace and Marine, concluded with England in the Years 1667 and 1674, and are afraid they ſhall now be ſtrictly called upon to anſwer for all their paſt Conduct towards us.

The Right Hon. William Campbell, youngeſt Son of the Duke of Argyle, will ſet out in a few Days, with his Lady and Family, for Portſmouth, in order to embark for his Government of Nova-Scotia.

Auguſt 7. On Thurſday laſt the Hon. Henry Grenville reſigned his Employment as one of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms.

Letters from Vienna, mention the Arrival there of the Marquis de Caſtries, Lieutenant-General in the Armies of the King of France; ſince which there was a Talk of a Negociation being on Foot for a Marriage between the Dauphin and the youngeſt of the Archduchеſſes.

Theſe Letters add, that the News had been received there of a great Advantage gained by Prince Heraclius over the Ottoman Army, commanded by the Pachas of Natolia and Scutari.

We hear from Farnham, that they have the greateſt Plenty of fine Hops in that Country, that have been known for many Years; and that the Corn Harveſt is ſo forward, that they expect to begin reaping in a few Days.

HALIFAX, Auguſt 28.

On Friday laſt arrived here in his Majeſty's Ship Launceſton, PHILIP DURELL, Eſq; Vice-Admiral of the Blue, and Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in North-America.

By the above Ship came his Majeſty's Commiſſion appointing the Honourable MICHAEL FRANCKLIN, Lieutenant-Governor, and on Saturday laſt he was Sworn in at the Council-Chamber, when his Honour took upon him the Command of this Province accordingly.

The ſame Day Admiral DURELL being dangerouſly ill, was brought on Shore to the Lieutenant-Governor's Houſe, where he died on Monday Evening about Seven o'Clock, much regretted by the Navy and the Inhabitants of this Colony, to whom he was well known. By this unhappy Event his Majeſty has loſt a good Officer, for in the Execution of his Duty, he was brave, vigilant, active and juſt; and in private Life, he was affable and ſincere.

Wedneſday the Remains of Admiral DURELL, were interred in St. Paul's Church, with the Military Honours due to his diſtinguiſhed Rank.

On Monday laſt arrived in this Harbour Four Tranſports, having on board the 14th Regiment, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Dalrymple, who, we learn, are to remain here till further Orders ſhall be received from General Gage at New-York.

ANNAPOLIS, October 9.

Thurſday laſt Capt. Keith Wray, who was ſuppoſed to be Loſt, went from hence for Patowmack, to go on board his own Ship there, which was brought in by his Mate. Capt. Wray was employed by the Committee of Merchants in London, to bring the News of the Repeal of the Stamp-Act to any Part of this Continent. The Repeal received the Royal Aſſent the 18th of March, and on the 20th he ſailed from Plymouth; but in 4 or 5 Days the Veſſel unluckily ſprung a Leak, ſo that they ſoon became in a diſtreſſed Condition, having 5 Feet Water in her Hold, when a Veſſel hove in Sight bound for Liſbon, for which they made the proper Signals, and all the Crew got on board about VI o'Clock P. M. and about X their own Ship went to the Bottom. From Liſbon he had a Paſſage of 8 Weeks to Halifax, and 5 Weeks from thence to New-York, and from thence came to this Place.

Tueſday laſt a Schooner loaded with Oats, was overſet by a Flaw of Wind near Greenbury's Point, but the People were all happily Saved by a Boat which happened to be near them.

Saturday laſt, at the Election of Two Common-council-men for this City, Meſſrs. Samuel Chaſe and John Bullen were Choſen and Sworn.

On the 13th of Auguſt paſt, there happen'd one of the moſt dreadful Hurricanes at Martinico, which perhaps ever happen'd, of which the following is an Introduction; but the reſt muſt be poſtpon'd till next Week.

ST. PIERRE, (MARTINICO) Auguſt 21.

THIS Colony, often afflicted by ſundry Calamities, has now experienced one, the moſt dreadful of any ſince its Settlement: A terrible Hurricane has occaſioned Misfortunes hardly reparable.

Wedneſday, the 13th of this Month, at Ten o'Clock at Night, the Horizon grew dark, the Moon pale, the Stars ſcarcely twinkled; the Heavens and the Earth diſappeared from our View; all Objects were wrapped up in the utmoſt darkneſs; the Winds from the North-Weſt burſted with the utmoſt Violence; the Clouds emited Torrents, mixed with igneous, ſulphureous, and bituminous Matter; all ſeemed to portend the Diſſolution of Nature. The Fury of the Winds augment, the Houſes ſhake, the Roofs borne away, a dreadful Noiſe is heard from all Parts, and Terror ſeizes every Heart.

At Midnight the Hurricane increaſes, proceeding from all Points of the Compaſs; nothing can reſiſt its Fury; here a Wall falling down, there a Houſe totally eraſed, burying, under its Ruins, the Child in its Mother's Arms, and the Wife in thoſe of her Spouſe. In this Inſtant the Foundations of the Earth tremble; Men, Women, Children and Slaves, all endeavour to ſeek their Preſervation by Flight, but are detained by Fear; and thinking their laſt Moment is come, proſtrate themſelves, and join to the piercing Cries, their moſt fervent Prayers.

The Horror of this moſt terrible Night is increaſed by the Devaſtations occaſioned by the Sea, the raging Billows whereof, raiſed to the Clouds, precipitate on the Shore, and deſtroy all the Veſſels in the Harbour, overwhelming the Mariners, whoſe lamentable Cries ſpoke their Diſtreſs, though without Hopes of receiving the leaſt Relief.

At 3 o'Clock in the Morning the Winds abate, and ſoon Day-light preſents to our afflicted View the moſt dreadful Spectacle, and all the Horrors we could imagine; the Houſes deſtroyed; the Streets filled with their Ruins; the Shore covered with Wrecks and dead Bodies; the Trees torn up by the Roots, ſtopped all the Roads, and the Rivers ſwelled, rolling down huge Stones from the Hills.

At 5 o'Clock we perceived a thick Cloud ſuſpending over the Mountain Pelée, the too great Quantity of Water which it contained, drew it on the Mountain, where it broke, and overwhelmed the Plain with its Torrents of Mud and Water. At 6 o'Clock the Winds were entirely appeaſed; the Sea became ſmooth, and a Calm ſucceeded to the moſt horrible Tempeſt.

☞ Sundry Gentlemen in different Parts of the Province, having, by Letter, applied to me, to procure Bodies of the Rev. Mr. BACON's Collection of the LAWS from the firſt Settlement of the Province, to the End of the Year 1763, lately Printed, and neatly Bound; and as Others may likewiſe apply, becauſe I Printed them, I think myſelf obliged to give Notice (in Anſwer to the Letters already Wrote (as well as any which are NOT Wrote) on that Head) That they are to apply for them to Lancelot Jacques, Eſq; Merchant of this City, who is the Agent for all Parties in the Affair, and not to J. GREEN.
